

Random Moment Time Study (RMTS)

- ▶ What is RMTS?
 - A statistical sampling technique that will be used to capture the amount of time spent providing direct services to students by qualified health service practitioners that bill in the LEA Medi-Cal Billing Option Program
- ▶ Why is DHCS moving to RMTS for the LEA Program?
 - As a term and condition of DHCS' resolution to the SMAA program deferral, DHCS agreed to implement a combined cost allocation methodology for the SMAA and LEA Medi-Cal Billing Option Programs
- ▶ SPA 15-021 will be submitted to CMS by 9/30/2015 and will include references to RMTS methodology.

Random Moment Time Study (RMTS)

The LEA Medi-Cal Billing Option Program will be transitioning to a Random Moment Time Study (RMTS) as part of the cost settlement process. The Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) is working on the design and development of a new RMTS for Direct Services provided through the LEA Medi-Cal Billing Option Program. The results of the RMTS will be combined with provider-specific costs, in order to determine provider-specific reimbursement for direct service claiming.

Overview of RMTS and how it impacts the LEA Program

DHCS maintains RMTS as a standard meeting. In addition, DHCS has developed an Implementation Advisory Group (IAG) comprised of a limited number of technically qualified stakeholders. The IAG participants work in a collaborative environment with DHCS on RMTS implementation issues, and welcome your thoughts and feedback on this matter. The link to the Stakeholder Feedback Tool below provides you with an opportunity to provide feedback related to RMTS Implementation for the LEA Medi-Cal Billing Option Program. The IAG commits to reviewing and discussing comments received, but will not be responding to individual stakeholders.

IAG welcomes input from stakeholders on RMTS implementation issues, please click on the link below:
