RE: Provider fee schedules

Accessing individual Insurers Provider fee schedules not easily available. Each has their own procedures for access by a designated few of the labs employees. For example this is a disclaimer on the site when you log in:

This pricing is as of 11/14/2012 and is for services performed in zip code 93301 and assumes each procedure was performed within a single visit or day. Where there is an approved procedure that differentiates between a site of service of office or facility the above maximum allowable is based on the office setting. Anthem Blue Cross's unit values are subject to change. The maximum allowable are subject to terms of the members' benefit agreement, including without limitation, copayment and deductibles. Pricing on surgery codes does not reflect multiple surgery reductions nor does it apply if procedure is performed incidentally to another procedure. Each claim is subject to utilization and/or Medical Review and is priced based on the date of service and the zip code where the services were performed.
