

Section D – Independent State Evaluation

(Approved by CMS October 10, 2008)

The state does not propose to administer a distinct evaluation of California Community Transitions. Demonstration participants will, however, participate in the federally required Quality of Life Survey and in quality improvement activities that the Department of Health Care Services carries out in the course of overseeing provision of home and community-based services.