76	8/8/2016	How does MCODE keep children in the same plan as another member in the household?	MCOD	Completed. Closed out on 08/22/16	Family linkage is based on head of household. Newly eligible children will be placed in the plan in which the head of household is enrolled. If the head of household is not a member of a managed care plan, but one or more siblings are, that is taken into consideration also. If two or more siblings are newly eligible for managed care, there are existing safeguards in place to ensure that family members are enrolled within the same plan. The only way that family members would be separated into different plans, is by beneficiary choice.
77	9/15/2016	Was the original time period granted to choose a health plan 60 days for SB 75 kids? Did it change back to 30 days and if so, when/for whom does the 30 days now apply?	MCOD	Completed. Closed out on 09/19/16	Yes, the original window of choice granted to SB 75 beneficiaries was 60 days. As of 8/15, the window of choice was reverted back to 30 days. This will not affect those beneficiaries that have been mailed informational notices detailing their right to a 60 day window of choice and will only affect new enrollees previously unknown to Medi-Cal.
78	8/22/2016	How many SB 75 outreach letters were returned?	MCED	Completed. Closed out on 09/19/16	MCED is not tracking returned mail. It is not possible to know if the mail returned is for SB 75 children or other reasons.
79	3/21/2016	Can an individual without an SSN get APTC?	Covered CA	Completed. Closed out on 10/03/16	Advocate concern: In general (there are specific exemptions) people are required to submit the application for an ITIN with a tax return. You can see the form and instructions here: https://www.irs.gov/uac/About-Form-W7 . As a result, there are people who intend to file taxes who don't yet have an ITIN (or SSN). The solution is to accept applicants' attestation that they intend to file taxes and grant them APTCs on that basis. It's our understanding that the federal marketplace grants APTCs based on that declaration. 06/27/16- No update. 09/26/16 - Yes an individual without an SSN can get APTC.

MCED	Completed. Closed out on 10/17/16	Persons who are not required to file taxes are not exempted from the ABP for New Qualified Immigrants. When they apply for CC coverage, the application asks if they will be filing taxes. They are informed that if they don't state they are going to file taxes, they won't be eligible for APTCs. If a person does not take the necessary steps to enroll in a QHP with their APTCs, they are only eligible for restricted scope services.
