SUBJECT: MC 223C – SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT OF FACTS FOR MEDI-CAL
CHILD ONLY – UNDER AGE 18

The purpose of this All County Welfare Directors Letter is to inform the counties that a new form, “SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT OF FACTS FOR MEDI-CAL CHILD ONLY – UNDER AGE 18” has been released. This form, the MC 223C, is to be used for applicants filing for Medi-Cal based on a disability, who have not yet reached their 18th birthday. The MC 223C is a supplemental form to the MC 210 application and any other Department of Health Care Services approved application used to apply for Medi-Cal. It does not replace any other forms that the county may be using as an application or in determining eligibility for Medi-Cal.

The MC 223 is still required for applicants, age 18 and older, filing for Medi-Cal based on a disability. The MC 223C will now be the appropriate form for applicants below age 18 and it has been produced in threshold languages. The forms are available on the Medi-Cal Eligibility Division forms website at:
