Tribal Consultation Development

- Governor's Executive Order B-10-11 executed on September 19, 2011
- Executive Order created the Tribal Advisor to Governor. Tribal Advisor duties include, but not limited to:
 - Advises Governor on Tribal issues.
 - Oversees creation of State Agency and department tribal consultation policies.
 - Facilitates communication and consultation between Tribes, Governor's Office and state agencies.
 - Advises on legislation and its impacts to tribal communities.
 - Ensures tribal engagement in State processes as much as possible.

Tribal Consultation Policy Update

- 6 out of 11 agencies have FINAL policies in place
 - All agency policies should be in place by the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 2015.
 - This next term we are focusing on implementation and State Departments developing their policies based off their agency policy.
 - Our role has been an advisory role and the majority of comments that influenced the content have come directly from Tribal Governments.
 - Policies on agency websites and Tribal Advisor Website <http://tribalgovtaffairs.ca.gov/>

California First Responders Network (CalFRN)

- The First Net Authority was created by federal legislation that authorized $7 billion to create a dedicated First Responders Network.
- Will provide more high frequency bandwidth to public safety
- CalFRN has created a Tribal Advisory Committee to advise on process. Those members are from different sections of public safety and are representatives in their tribal government capacity
- Tribal Advisor appointed to CalFRN board

The Yurok Tribe Marijuana Eradication

- From 07-21-2014 to 07-24-2014, the Humboldt County Sheriff's Office joined the Bureau of Indian Affairs, California Department of Justice, California Fish and Wildlife Service, Marin County Sheriff's Office, Humboldt County District Attorney's Office, Yurok Police Department and Eureka Police Department in eradicating marijuana grows on Yurok Tribal Land and adjacent properties.
- The 35 officers served twenty Humboldt County Superior Court Search Warrants and nine Tribal Court search warrants during the four days.
- The operation eradicated more than 12,898 plants, over 300 pounds of processed marijuana and seven firearms were seized.
- Officers located extensive environmental damage at several search warrant locations, along with California Fish and Wildlife violations.
 - ❖ Millions of gallons of water was wasted by the clandestine cannabis farms.
 - ❖ Illegal water diversions filled large, tarp-lined pools.
 - ❖ Fish and wildlife killing fungicides and herbicides were used at the illegal sites.
 - ❖ The high nitrate fertilizers and other chemicals threaten drinking water systems.

Tribal Engagement in California Legislation

- Proposition 1 – Water Bond
Water Quality, Supply and Infrastructure and Improvement Act
- Sustainable Groundwater Management Act (SGMA)

Tribal Governments & the Legislation

Sustainable Groundwater Management Act

- A majority of California’s tribal lands rely on groundwater as their primary source of water because they were created in areas where surface or imported water is not available. Consequently, many reservations overlie groundwater basins for which Plans will be created.
- The Act requires that each Groundwater Sustainability Agency (Agency) consider the interests of all beneficial users of groundwater in the basin, including Native American Tribes. (Water Code § 10723.2).
- At the same time, the Act recognizes Tribal sovereignty, stating that it applies to Tribes and the federal government only “to the extent authorized under federal or tribal law.” (Water Code § 10720.3(b)).
- The Act encourages Tribes to voluntarily participate in the preparation or administration of a Groundwater Sustainability Plan (Plan) through a “joint powers authority or other agreement with local agencies in the basin.” (Water Code § 10720.3(c)).
 - A participating Tribe can assist with planning, financing, and management under the Plan, and is eligible for “grants and technical assistance” to help the Tribe exercise its inherent regulatory authority to regulate groundwater use.
- While the Act invites Tribal participation in the Plan process, absent Tribal approval, the requirements of a Plan do not apply to a Tribe’s use of groundwater.
- The Act recognizes that in any judicial adjudication of groundwater rights or in the implementation of a Plan, “federally reserved water rights to groundwater shall be respected in full” and that if there is any conflict “between federal and state law in that adjudication or management, federal law shall prevail.” (Water Code § 10720.3(d)). The Act states that this language is “declaratory of existing law.”

Water Conservation Toolkits

The Home Depot donated 30,000 drought toolkits to the California Conservation Corps Foundation (CCCF) to help disadvantaged communities experiencing or vulnerable to water shortages.

The Governor's Office of Planning and Research (OPR) partnered with the CCCF, the CCC, the Office of Emergency Services (OES) and other state agencies engaged in drought response, local and county governments, tribes, and NGOs to distribute toolkits to community members

Tool Contents:

- 1 5-Gallon Bucket
- 1 Low-Flow Showerhead
- 2 Bathroom Faucet Aerators
- 1 Kitchen Faucet Aerator
- 1 Auto-Shut Off Hose Nozzle
- 1 5-Minute Shower Timer
- Water Conservation Tip Sheets and Drought Emergency Resources in English and Spanish

Conservation Awareness

Save Our Water Campaign

- Focus on seasonally relevant information
 - In-depth landscaping and gardening information
 - Continued updates of public service announcements
 - Focus on how small changes can mean significant conservation
 - News and updates regarding extraordinary drought and that rainfall does not equal relief
- How to help Save Our Water grow
 - Welcomes Tribal Ecological Knowledge for ideas on ways Californians can conserve water
 - The program welcomes guest contributions such as column posts or any ideas for implementing Save Our Water within your community or schools
