Hi Darlene, you should be able to hide the captions on your screen by clicking Hide Captions on the CC button at the bottom of your Zoom window.

13:34:43—Darlene Rodella—to Hosts and panelists

Hi Alice, can you please turn off the auto captions?

13:36:38—Alice K—Events to Darlene Rodella And all panelists

Hi Darlene, you should be able to control the visibility of captions on your own screen by clicking Hide Captions or the CC button at the bottom of your Zoom window. Please let me know if you need any more assistance!

13:37:02—Darlene Rodella—to Hosts and panelists

Sorry, it's down to the host

13:37:42—Serena Yang—to Alice K - Events(direct message)

Alice, are we supposed to seeing slides? I only see Dr. Babaria talking

13:39:03—Alice K—Events to Serena Yang(direct message)

Hello! Please click on "Caroline Welch's screen" at the top of your Zoom window. Let me know if you have any further trouble!

13:39:21—Serena Yang—Alice K - Events(direct message)

Got it, thank you!

13:39:46—Antionette Dozier—to Hosts and panelists

Is there an automatic pathway to connect families to home visiting?

13:58:44—Shunling Tsang—to Hosts and panelists

Would WIC be able to bill MediCal for breast pumps?

13:59:07—Katherine Barresi—to Everyone

Were there any specific tools utilized when analyzing the feedback from members/providers? Or were there any tools used to drive key informant interviews?

13:59:45—Alex Briscoe—to Hosts and panelists

How does DHCS envision Doula and ECM benefit working together.? Can a doula also be an ECM provider?

14:02:06—Chris Stoner—Mertz to Hosts and panelists

Apologies that I have to drop off for another meeting - look forward to reviewing the recording for the rest of the discussion.

14:04:16—Alex Briscoe—to Everyone

Love the focus on BH. Dyadic adoption in OB settings and home visiting programs will take some learning and thinking...the benefit was designed as a pediatric primary care BH integration strategy (healthy steps, PCIT, CPP, etc) but it's applicable in many other settings.

14:09:09—Rob Oldham—to Hosts and panelists

I appreciate the recognition of BH access challenges faced by pregnant/ postpartum members. Did you get data demonstrating specific gaps in access to psychotropic medications and higher levels of care, like acute/ inpatient? If I recall correctly, those were gaps that stood out to our workgroup that reviewed maternal suicides statewide.

14:10:19—Alex Briscoe—to Everyone

FQHCs can now get PPS for Interns and Associates without a scope change (post graduate degree pre licensure). It's a game changer to workforce challenges FQHCs face. Please spread the word.

14:11:37—Antionette Dozier—to Hosts and panelists

any linkages to child care programs

14:13:37—Alex Briscoe—to Everyone

For more information on Dyadic adoption see the UCSF Center for Advancing Dyadic Care. The center is based out of a clinic that serves 14k kids so there stuff is super practical. <https://dyadiccare.ucsf.edu>

14:14:17—Alexandra Rounds—to Everyone

This is essential for access to care with so many birth center and hospital L&D closures, especially in rural counties.

14:18:23—Alex Briscoe—to Everyone

Do the pre release services include the doula benefit?

14:18:39—Kim Lewis—to Everyone

@Alex - no

14:19:10—Dipa Patolia—to Hosts and panelists

Dual referrals for ECM and Doula may help us increase awareness and access

14:20:09—Alex Briscoe—to Everyone

Got it. Thx.

14:20:11—CHRISTINA OLDINI—to Everyone

Thank you @alex for the information on the center at UCSF...was not aware of it.

14:20:26—Alexandra Rounds—to Everyone

Much gratitude for all the effort and engagement in this workgroup. A couple thoughts- Community birth reimbursement coding and limited approved codes for LMs is a barrier to practice. And for ECM and CHW supports, long term sustainable funding for supervision and administration could improve the sustainability of these programs for CBOs.

14:24:19—Michelle Gibbons—to Hosts and panelists

Where can we find the slides?

14:24:38—Mike Odeh—to Hosts and panelists

thanks Palav! how do you see the intersection of this with the work needed to improve infant related MCAS measures?

14:25:03—Laurie Soman—to Everyone

Echo Michelle G-- I'd love to have the slides.

14:25:06—Alice Lam—to Everyone

- 1) What Birthing Care Pathway focus areas are you most excited about?
- 2) What else should DHCS consider for the Birthing Care Pathway?
- 3) How can DHCS continue to engage Medi-Cal members and stakeholders in the Birthing Care Pathway?

14:25:21—Lindsay Parham—to Everyone

Yes will slides and recording be available?

14:25:40—CHRISTINA OLDINI—to Everyone

TY..who is the advisory group?...can you please place the names here in the chat?

14:26:19—Ryan Spencer—to Everyone

Appreciate all the work here. Has there been any discussion regarding incentives and financial support or implementing policies to prevent or mitigate the rise in maternity ward closures?

14:27:27—Nancy Netherland—to Hosts and panelists

Thanks for this. Heartened to see the impact of members (lived experience) in making benefits and care relevant and accessible. Wondering how member engagement in increasing access to, and improving, benefits can move from grant funded to a regular budget item and standing practice. Again - thanks so much for this work.

14:28:33—Alexandra Rounds—to Everyone

- 1) All great work.

2) Work with CBOs and community supports focus ( stepped away from CAPC convening for this) for coordination and community conveners for early childhood and family supports (First 5 partnerships)

14:30:17—Amie Miller—to Hosts and panelists

Could not agree more with Michelle Gibbons HV programs needs infrastructure support. They are all operating in silos as mentioned.

14:30:47—Laurie Soman—to Everyone

Second agreement with Michelle G's comments.

14:31:02—Alexandra Rounds—to Everyone

^^ yes as well as MCAH!

14:31:10—Jen Eder—to Everyone

Slides and a recording of the meeting will be emailed out to all attendees and posted on both the DHCS PHM and Birthing Care Pathway websites
