HACCP Providers

- » Once enrolled, find a participating provider:
<https://providerca.maximus.com/>
or
- » If your child is already established with a pediatric hearing aid provider, you can ask your current provider whether they are enrolled as a Medi-Cal or CCS provider.
 - Enrolled Fee-For-Service (FFS) Medi-Cal providers may submit claims for covered benefits provided to HACCP clients through the same process they already use for FFS Medi-Cal and CCS.
 - If your provider is not already enrolled in Medi-Cal, they can learn more and apply online: <https://www.dhcs.ca.gov/provgovpart/Pages/PAVE.aspx>

- » What to bring to your child's first appointment:
 - ❑ HACCP ID card
 - ❑ Health insurance card(s) if your child has other health coverage
 - ❑ Documents from earlier appointments (if any), which may include:
 - Hearing aid prescription signed by your child's otolaryngologist or physician
 - Medical history and examination notes from your child's otolaryngologist, including medical clearance for hearing aids
 - Hearing aid recommendation(s) and audiologic report from your child's previous audiologist
 - ❑ Any other documents requested by your child's enrolled provider

HACCP Covered Benefits

 - » Supplies, including ear molds and hearing aid batteries
 - » Medically necessary hearing aid accessories
 - » Hearing aid-related audiology and post-evaluation services
- » Note: Coverage determinations are based on medical necessity. There is no cap on medically necessary, HACCP-covered benefits.

» Specific examples include:

- Hearing aid assessment
- Hearing aid (monaural, binaural)
- Electroacoustic analysis (EAA)
- Real ear measurements
- Minor hearing aid repairs

<https://files.medi-cal.ca.gov/pubsdoco/publications/masters-mtp/part2/hearaccp.pdf>.

Treatment Authorization Request (TAR) Process

- » Medi-Cal and HACCP use TARs to support appropriate use of covered benefits.
- » Some benefits always require a TAR for medical necessity, while others only require a TAR after a certain quantity.
 - Hearing aids always require an approved TAR.
 - Ear molds only require a TAR if your child needs more than two ear molds at a time, or more than four ear molds per year.
- » DHCS anticipates responding to most TARs within 30 days of receipt.

TAR Supporting Documentation

- » For new hearing aids, your child's audiologist needs to include these documents when they submit the TAR:
 - ☐ Hearing aid prescription from an otolaryngologist (or the attending physician when no otolaryngologist is available in the community)
 - ☐ Signed medical history and physical examination by an otolaryngologist
 - ☐ Signed audiologic report and hearing aid evaluation
 - ☐ Specification of ear to be fitted

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

- My child qualifies for CCS. Should we switch to HACCP?
No. CCS provides a robust set of hearing aid-related benefits, as well as broader coverage for related services. If your child is enrolled in CCS coverage for a hearing-related condition, they do not qualify for HACCP.
- My child has partial insurance coverage for hearing aids. Do they qualify for HACCP?
Effective January 1, 2023, families may apply for supplemental hearing aid-related coverage through HACCP. Your provider will bill your insurance first.
- How do I find my insurance plan's explanation of coverage?
You should have received an explanation of coverage document when you first enrolled in your plan. You can also call your health plan's member services to request they send you a copy.
- My child needs a bone conduction hearing device (BCHD). Are these covered?
Surface-worn BCHDs are covered when medically necessary. BCHDs require TAR approval.

FAQs (Continued)

- Do parents need to pay out of pocket for HACCP-covered services?
No, providers bill HACCP directly for covered benefits, just like they do for Medi-Cal/CCS. Please note: If you have partial coverage through a health insurance plan, your provider must bill your insurance first – which may also require you to pay your copay/coinsurance, depending on your plan.
- Is authorization needed to see my HACCP-participating audiologist?
While certain audiology services do require a TAR, providers may generally submit the TAR either before or after the appointment. As a result, the answer to this question depends on a particular audiologist's billing policies.
- What happens if my child's application for HACCP enrollment is denied?
If your child does not qualify for HACCP, you will receive a letter explaining which eligibility criteria were not met, how to request reconsideration of your application if you feel there was a misunderstanding or if your circumstances have changed, and other programs that may help.
