

Dear Colleagues,

New California law, SB 739, requires hospitals to report to the state their rates of hospital acquired infections as well as the compliance with processes designed to prevent those infections. It is also planned to eventually make this information public.

Our current initiative, focusing on both the rates of CR-BSIs and the 'bundle' of processes used to prevent those infections, makes the NICU an organizational leader in responding to the new state law.