

Evidenced-Based Interventions

EWC Provider Orientation

Evidence-Based Interventions

Clinics are encouraged to utilize evidence-based interventions to increase screening rates:

- » Evidence-based interventions are practices or programs that are implemented at the clinics to increase screening rates
- » The findings and recommendations are based on systematic reviews of the scientific literature (i.e. peer reviewed)
- » Evidence across studies suggests multi-component interventions are most effective

Further information:

- » <https://www.cdc.gov/cancer/php/interventions/index.html>

Evidence-Based Interventions

Strategy	Breast	Cervical
Increasing Client Demand
Client Reminders	Recommended	Recommended
Group Education	Recommended	Insufficient evidence
One-On-One Education	Recommended	Recommended
Small Media	Recommended	Recommended
Increasing Client Access
Reducing Structural Barriers	Recommended	Insufficient evidence
Reducing Out-of-Pocket Costs	Recommended	Insufficient evidence
Increasing Provider Delivery
Provider Assessment and Feedback	Recommended	Recommended
Provider Reminders	Recommended	Recommended