Subject: Temporary Disregard of Annual Social Security Cost-of-Living Adjustments (COLAs)

The Governor’s new budget has approved language allowing the Department of Health Services (DHS) to temporarily disregard Social Security COLAs when determining eligibility for the Section 1931 program.

Beginning with the January 2001 Social Security COLAs, counties are instructed not to apply the Social Security COLAs to the Section 1931 program cases until the new Federal Poverty Levels (FPLs) are released and applied (usually in April of each year). By synchronizing this process, DHS hopes to eliminate the hardship imposed on beneficiaries and the administrative costs associated with terminating Section 1931 Medi-Cal eligibility in January because of the Social Security COLAs and then restoring benefits in April when the FPLs are released.

Glenda Arellano, Acting Chief
