    All County Administrative Officers

NEW FORM - “PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY FOR NURSING FACILITY LEVEL OF CARE” (MC 176 PI - 9/97)

Ref.: All County Welfare Directors Letters (ACWDL) No. 90-01 and 97-05

The purpose of this letter is to inform counties that there is a new form for calculating a period of ineligibility for nursing facility level of care. A copy has been enclosed for your convenience. Counties shall use this form when there has been a disqualifying transfer of property anytime

- during or after the 30 months preceding the date of entry into nursing facility level of care for a Medi-Cal recipient or
- during or after the 30 months preceding the date of application as an institutionalized individual in accordance with the ACWDLs referenced above.

The new MC 176 PI has been clarified to include information on transfers which are not disqualifying. It also incorporates a step-by-step process of elimination to shorten the process when potentially disqualifying transfers do not result in period of ineligibility actually being imposed.

The MC 176 PI is available for counties to order from the warehouse. Counties shall destroy any remaining copies of the old MC 176 PI when the new forms are received.

If you have any questions on this issue, please call Sharyl Shanen-Raya of my staff at (916) 657-2942.

Sincerely,

Glenda Arellano
