SUBJECT: Iraqi and Afghan Special Immigrants Eligible for Medi-Cal Benefits to the Same Extent as Refugees
(Reference: All County Welfare Directors Letters 08-53 and 09-43)

The purpose of this letter is to:

- Inform counties of the requirements of Section 8120 of Public Law 111-118, which states that Iraqi and Afghan Special Immigrants (SIs) are now eligible for entitlement programs, such as Medi-Cal, to the same extent, and for the same periods of time as refugees.
- Provide counties with guidance on the changes made to Medi-Cal eligibility for Iraqi and Afghan SIs as a result of Section 8120 of Public Law 111-118.

BACKGROUND

Pursuant to Section 8120 of Public Law 111-118, Iraqi and Afghan SIs and their eligible family members may receive entitlement programs, and other benefits available to refugees. This means that Iraqi and Afghan SIs and their eligible family members may now be eligible for full-scope Medi-Cal if otherwise eligible. The federal Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) states in ORR State Letter 10-02 that “these programs and benefits would appear to include federal public benefits such as ... Medicaid...” Previously, Iraqi and Afghan SIs were potentially eligible for only Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA) and Refugee Medical Assistance (RMA). Benefits and services associated with these programs are limited to a maximum of eight months. With respect to medical benefits, Iraqi and Afghan SIs previously could receive RMA (as provided in ACWDL 08-53), but their Medi-Cal eligibility was limited to restricted scope benefits because they did not meet the immigration status requirements for full-scope Medi-Cal. In order to now receive full scope Medi-Cal benefits as required by this letter, Afghan and Iraqi SIs, like other Medi-Cal beneficiaries, must also meet all Medi-Cal eligibility requirements including, but not limited to income, property, California residency and linkage. Effective immediately, Iraqi and Afghan SIs who meet all Medi-Cal eligibility requirements are eligible for full-scope Medi-Cal.

REFUGEE MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

Section 8120 of Public Law No. 111-118, described above, does not impact an Iraqi/Afghan SI's eligibility for Refugee Medical Assistance (RMA), since time-eligibility for RMA benefits remains at eight months from the date of entry for Iraqi/Afghan SI's who are not Medi-Cal eligible, but who meet all RMA eligibility requirements. Iraqi/Afghan SIs who previously exhausted the eight-month maximum eligibility for RMA are eligible for Medi-Cal if they apply and meet all eligibility requirements.

MEDI-CAL FOR IRAQI AND AFGHAN SIs

Iraqi/Afghan SIs are to be treated like refugees for the purposes of determining Medi-Cal eligibility. Effective immediately, Afghan and Iraqi SIs who meet all Medi-Cal eligibility requirements including, but not limited to income, property, California residency and linkage are eligible for full-scope Medi-Cal. Please review all Iraqi/Afghan SI cases that are currently eligible for RMA for ongoing Medi-Cal eligibility. If an SI who is currently eligible for RMA is also eligible for Medi-Cal, the county should grant Medi-Cal as appropriate and send out the attached Approval NOA (Attachment A). For purposes of tracking the immigration status of Iraqi and Afghan SIs in MEDS, counties should use the citizenship/alien indicator code "R".

As noted in ACWDL 08-53, the documents in the following table will confirm both immigration status and date of entry for Iraqi and Afghan SIs:

Documents Acceptable for Confirming Immigration Status and Date of Entry
