

Keep yourself and your family covered.

Make sure your information is up to date.

Medi-Cal covers vital health care services for you and your family, including doctor visits, prescriptions, vaccinations, mental health care, and more. So, if you have Medi-Cal, make sure you renew it when it's time.

Update your contact information

Report any new changes to your name, address, phone number, and email address, so your county can contact you.

Check your mail

Counties will mail you a letter about your Medi-Cal eligibility. You may need to complete a renewal form. If you're sent a renewal form, submit your information by mail, phone, in person, or online, so you don't lose your coverage.

Create or check your online account

You can sign up to receive alerts on your case. Create or log into your account to get these alerts. You may submit renewals or requested information online.

Complete your renewal form (if you get one)

If you received a renewal form, submit your information by mail, phone, in person, or online to help avoid a gap in your coverage.
