Letter No.: 91-115

SUBJECT: TERMINATION OF CERTAIN AID CODES

This letter is to inform you that the following aid codes have been terminated:

- 06 Emergency Assistance - Unemployed Parent
- 43 Emergency Assistance - Abused Children
- 46 AFDC Foster Care - 20% SSA Disregard
- 77 Refugee Demonstration Project - Family Group
- 78 Refugee Demonstration Project - Unemployed
- 81 Medically Indigent Adult - Aid Paid Pending
- 33 State-Only AFDC - Unemployed Parent

As indicated in All County Welfare Directors Letter No. 90-110, the two emergency assistance programs which were administered by the Department of Social Services (DSS) terminated on September 30, 1990.

Aid code 46 was designated to Aid to Families With Dependent Children - Foster Care who were eligible for or receiving a cash grant in 1972 but were discontinued or were no longer eligible solely because of a 20 percent increase in Social Security benefits (Section 50247, Title 22, California Code of Regulations).

Aid codes 77 and 78 were designated to Refugee Demonstration Project - Family Group and Unemployed Parent and administered by DSS. This program terminated on January 1, 1990; however, the participants could continue receiving Medi-Cal benefits until March 31, 1991.

Aid code 81 was designated to Medically Indigent adults who were discontinued from the Medi-Cal program prior to December 31, 1982, requested a hearing and were entitled to aid paid pending.

Aid code 33 was a state-only program designated to families unable to meet the federal eligibility requirements to receive AFDC based on the unemployment of a parent. This program was eliminated effective August 1, 1991.

Counties who have persons receiving Medi-Cal under these aid codes or who attempt to give eligibility under these aid codes via the Medi-Cal Eligibility Data System (MEDS) will receive an alert rejecting the transaction.
